improve their bargaining position," said Ball, "then they gravely misconceive the attitude of the United States, the power of the United States, the determination of the United States to see an honorable settlement."

Ball, recently tapped by Johnson to take over the U.N. post when Ambassador Arthur J. Goldberg's resignation takes effect later this year, said North Vietnamese infiltration of the south reached a record level last month.

His comments came on the NBC radio-television interview program, "Meet the Press."

Backing up Ball's statements on infiltration, administration sources said North Vietnam has increased three-fold the southward movement of men and supplies since the March 31 bombing limitation was imposed.

These sources said latest intelligence reports show as many as 80,000 North Vietnamese soldiers were infiltrated in March and April—almost as many as moved into South Vietnam in all of 1967.

"They are taking full advantage of our gesture of March 31," the sources said.

Aerial photographs, they added, also show the Communists have taken advantage of the bombing limitation to rebuild bridges and railroads in the Hanoi-Haiphong area, increase the number of seaborne, supply-laden sampans and construct new transportation facilities.

More Rain Predicted for State

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
More showers and thunderstorms are forecast for Arkansas tonight, spreading across the state Tuesday.

Drier but cooler air is scheduled to move into the state Wednesday.

A cool, high pressure system is controlling the state's weather and it pushed the temperature down to 45 at Little Rock this morning. That is only two degrees above the record low for this date.

High temperatures Sunday ranged from 78 at Texarkana to 65 at Blytheville. Overnight lows ranged from 54 at Texarkana to 36 at Calico Rock.

Five Killed in Accidents in Arkansas

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
Five persons were killed in Arkansas traffic accidents between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Sunday, an Associated Press count showed today.

William Manuel, 63, and his wife, Della, 55, of near Paragould were killed Saturday when their pickup truck was struck by a Cotton Belt Lines freight train at a crossing on a county road just east of Paragould.

Steve Reynolds, 20, of New Boston, Tex., was killed Sunday in the head-on collision of two cars on U.S. 167 about six miles north of Batesville.

Police said Reynolds' car collided with another as he attempted to pass a third vehicle. He was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Reynolds of near Batesville.

Eugene Hawkins, 30, of Osceola was killed Sunday when his pickup truck overturned on a gravel road less than two miles north of Osceola.

Kenneth Hench, 21, of Ashdown, was killed Saturday when his tractor-trailer rig overturned in a curve on Arkansas 32 just west of Saratoga. Police said Hench was pinned in his truck.

Proclamation

WHEREAS, in the labor market the worker forty-five years of age or older is deemed an "older worker," and

WHEREAS, it has been proven that such older workers perform far better than most employers realize, excel in loyalty, judgment, experience, dependability and other desirable characteristics; and

WHEREAS, variations in work performance of individuals within any age group are great; much larger than differences in groups, which nullifies the conclusion that work productivity may be gauged by the age of the employee; and

WHEREAS, great advances in medical science in the past twenty years and extension of life expectancy eliminate the view that workers over forty-five are poor health risks;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Donal Parker, Mayor of the City of Hope, Arkansas, in recognition of the value of older workers who furnish over one-third of the labor supply, do hereby proclaim the week of May 5-11, 1968, as HIRE AN OLDER WORKER WEEK and urge all employers to give serious consideration to the outstanding merits of such older workers in filling jobs available.

Court Rules Rights for Prisoners

WASHINGTON (AP) — Prisoners, like other people, must be advised of their constitutional rights when questioned by officials, the Supreme Court ruled today.

With that admonition, the court, by a 5-3 vote, upset the conviction and 30-month sentence of a Florida man for filing false income tax claims against the government.

Said Justice Hugo L. Black: "We reject the contention that tax investigations are immune from the Miranda requirements for warnings to be given a person in custody."

The Supreme Court's June 1966 Miranda decision requires police or other government agents to warn individuals that they may remain silent during questioning, have the right to the presence of a lawyer and states that, if they are unable to afford a lawyer, one would be provided.

Justice Byron R. White said in his dissenting opinion that the original decision in Miranda "was an extravagant and unwarranted interpretation of the Fifth Amendment and I would prefer that Miranda be abandoned."

The case involved Robert T. Mathis Sr. of Orlando, who was visited by an Internal Revenue Service agent in the Florida State penitentiary at Raiford in 1964 and 1965. Identified his signature on income tax returns and signed government forms that gave the government more time to investigate.

Mathis, 42, was then serving a five-year sentence on a bad checks conviction. In the second case he was convicted of claim-

Donohue Sets Track Record

MONTEREY, Calif. (AP) — Speeding to a track record of 107.2 m.p.h., Mark Donohue of Stony Brook, N.Y., won the Laguna Seca auto race Sunday by less than two car lengths ahead of Lothar Motschenbacher, Beverly Hills, Calif., both driving McLaren.

Appealing to the Supreme Court, he claimed the agent's purpose in obtaining the consent was a trick to get a handwriting sample for criminal prosecution. The agent, the appeal said, did not advise Mathis that he did not have to answer any question or sign any documents that could incriminate him.

Dismissal Due to WR, Man Declares

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Sidney Roberts, a Republican candidate for governor, says pressure exerted by Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller led to his dismissal by his employer last Thursday.

Roberts charged Saturday that the present administration told the Stephens Manufacturing Co., officials of Muskogee, Okla., that "if they wished to do business with the school system in this state, they had better force me to withdraw from the Republican primary."

"This left Stephens Co. with no recourse than to fire me," Roberts said.

Roberts, a sales representative for Stephens, which manufactures heating equipment for schools, filed Wednesday for the GOP nomination. His employer told him Thursday the company did not wish to get involved in politics and fired him.

Roberts said that despite "cruel tactics and pressure and harassment exerted on me and my family, I am in this race to further the interest of true conservative Republicans."

But Rockefeller also charges harassment—that on the part of Roberts, who the governor said was friends with some high ranking Democrats but unheard of in the Republican circles.

Kennedy himself was in Washington campaigning for his slate in the District of Columbia primary. He promised a "new day for Washington" and drew screaming and cheering hundreds at three rallies.

The vice president reportedly has strong support among candidates—most of them unopposed—for the 115-member delegation to be elected in Ohio.

Children of Israel

Abraham's grandson, Jacob, who was also called Israel, had 12 sons. The 12 tribes which later made up the Jewish people were the descendants of Israel's sons, hence the term of "Children of Israel," or Israelites, being applied to Jews.

Conviction Overturned by Court

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The Arkansas Supreme Court today reversed and remanded the conviction of Sammy Clark, 31, of Little Rock, who was sentenced to life in prison for rape.

Clark was convicted Jan. 27, 1967 in Circuit Court in Pulaski County of raping his 9-year-old stepdaughter.

The high court said the trial court erred in refusing to grant a defense motion for a mistrial when Clark's wife was called as a state's witness and erred in refusing to allow the defense to give a definition of carnal abuse.

In another decision, the high court upheld Circuit Court in Ouachita County in a land condemnation case.

The Camden Housing Authority condemned 6.2 acres of a 73-acre tract owned by the John R. Reeves Jr. family, and the Circuit Court jury fixed value of the property being taken at $36,000.

The authority appealed to the Supreme Court, contending that the court erred in allowing the landowners to introduce an unrecorded plat showing the 73-acre tract as a residential subdivision consisting of public streets and blocks divided into lots. The authority contended that such an exhibit is apt to mislead the jury on value of the property.

HELEN HELP US!

by Helen Bottel

MORE DISILLUSIONED THAN TEMPTED

Dear Helen: I know this sounds silly, but how do I get over it?

We have been married 13 years and I have had no problems about unfaithfulness. But my husband just took a new job where he deals mostly with women. He has to go into their homes. He says it's nothing, but I keep thinking of all those females, and that maybe he'll find one who looks better than me. I keep wondering if it isn't more fun than work.—35 AND JEALOUS

Dear 35: If you could make the rounds, just once, with your husband, I'm quite sure you'd agree his job is nothing to worry about. Housewives aren't all that glamorous—and those who are, usually aren't that eager.—H.

Dear Helen: You used poor judgment and wicked taste when you printed "What Is a Soldier?" These men are fighting and dying. You shouldn't make fun of them. That "Anonymous" person who wrote the article is probably some fat 4-F who hasn't got guts enough to protect his country!—S.F.

Dear S.F.: "What Is a Soldier?" was written by a fighting man in Vietnam, as a TRIBUTE, not a joke. His good-natured kidding went over big with all his buddies; his proud and loving wife sent it to me, with an added paragraph on the female point of view. Most readers enjoyed the humor, aware that bravery and sacrifice need a camouflage. But there were some, like you, who resented "anyone who thinks war is funny."

I humbly submit: If you don't laugh about unfunny things, you end up crying a lot.—H.

Dear Helen: Recently our local college conducted a seminar on sex. The faculty invited some of the farthest-out thinkers of our time to speak—a public relations man for a free-wheeling men's magazine; a psychologist who recommended pre-marital sex as a cure for "hang-ups," and implied a couple didn't even have to know or like each other very well to indulge; and finally a marriage counselor who said adultery was sometimes the best thing for a marriage.

There were other speakers too, whose approach was less startling, and therefore less publicized. Our daughter, who attended the lectures, was very enthusiastic. She said they created much discussion and considerable argument.

I try to keep an open mind but, Helen, is college the place to tell young people they should "sleep around" and, as long as they're enjoying themselves, it's okay?—SHOCKED MOTHER

Dear Mother: College is the place to hear all sides of a question—and, with college students, hearing isn't believing, unless they are already convinced. As your daughter said, the seminar created much discussion and argument. It also presented other, less far-out-views—probably in the same speeches—but you heard much less about them.

Invited to speak on campus these days are champions of almost every religious, political and social doctrine in the world. If students aren't mature enough to sort and discard, they shouldn't be in college.—H.

Dear Helen: You're so right about the misplaced "wonderful" in describing a husband and children. I have a wonderful husband and two daughters who are also extra-special because their father is the best, and we all try to live up to his image.

He has been more than a husband and father to us. He is our buddy, comedian, advisor, and best of all, my lover. He takes time out for all of us, never playing favorites. He always manages to come home happy. Sometimes we act like a bunch of nuts—wrestling, trying new dance steps with the girls and just kidding around, but we enjoy and appreciate each other.

My man makes our daughters toe the mark, and they respect him for it. Yet he is soft at times, letting us girls have our way.

What I'm trying to say is, when you give of your life, you get much love, happiness and

Television and Radio

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Television-Radio Writer
NEW YORK (AP) — That was quite a salute for Irving Berlin on his 80th birthday Sunday night.

Ed Sullivan opened his CBS special tribute with greetings by President Johnson followed by pictures of the Statue of Liberty while Fred Waring's chorus sang.

And some 90 minutes later it concluded with Berlin himself singing his "God Bless America" with a chorus of Camp Fire Girls and Girl and Boy Scouts.

In between, Berlin songs performed by stars were packed into the show like olives in a bottle. There was Bing Crosby singing "White Christmas," Ethel Merman with "There's No Business Like Show Business" and other show tunes that really belong to her. Robert Goulet and the Supremes sang more of the composer's great songs; Harry James played Berlin music, and Peter Gennaro and his group danced to it.

It must have been a very, very difficult program to put together. There was, in the first place, so much material from which to choose. But over all, it did justice to Berlin's talents, and it also managed to keep the living room audience fascinated.

SUCCESS FROM A MARRIAGE—FULFILLED

Dear Fulfilled: Thanks for brightening my day!

You know: If all the lucky ones—and some who think they aren't so lucky—would write letters like yours, then send them to their mates at least once a month, the home fires would never burn low.—H.

ed. It ranged from Berlin's first published song, "Marie from Sunny Italy" to his most recent, "I Used to Play It by Ear," both songs by Gensel.

One of the most interesting turns was by the Supremes who spent several minutes with some special musical material which was really the names of a bunch of well-known Berlin songs strung together.

The production was neither very imaginative nor elegant, but the caliber of the performers and, above all, the familiarity of the songs, turned it into something of a milestone.

"Man in a Suitcase" on ABC Friday was the premier of a British-made action series that will be around for the next few months. The first episode was devoted to explaining how the hero, an ex-intelligence agent named McGill, is stuck with a reputation as a traitor to his country, the United States.

It seems that he is but an unlucky pawn in the greater game of international espionage and—like all heroes in "running man" series from "Branded" to "The Fugitive"—he cannot clear his name.

The lead is played by Richard Bradford who sounds American, wears bangs and whose acting style has limited facets—he seems to be by turns surly and tough. "Man in a Suitcase" probably won't win any awards for ingenuity of plot or for acting, but it may help to while away some hot evenings.

Homers by Orioles Get Victory

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer
Gene Brabender, Sonny Siebert and Gary Peters turned the enemy's weapons against him ... and divided the spoils in a slam-bang pitchers' duel.

Brabender smacked the first home run of his six-year pro career—touching off a seventh inning salvo of three Baltimore homers—and pitched the American League leading Orioles to an 8-0 triumph over Washington Sunday.

Siebert poked two singles, drove in one run and scored the other while limiting Minnesota to one hit for seven innings in the Cleveland Indians' 2-1 victory over the Twins.

Peters flipped a six-hitter and hit a grand slam homer, carrying the Chicago White Sox past the New York Yankees 5-1 in the first game of a double-header.

The Yanks bounced back behind rookie right-hander Stan Bahnsen for a 4-1 decision in the nightcap at Chicago while Oakland edged Boston 3-2 and Detroit trimmed California 5-2 in other single games.

In the National League, Chicago swept a twin bill from New York 3-2 and 1-0, Cincinnati nipped Los Angeles 3-2 in 16 innings, San Francisco slugged St. Louis 8-4, Atlanta blanked Houston 2-0 and Pittsburgh whipped Philadelphia 5-2.

Brabender, making his first start this year, hurled the Orioles to their seventh consecutive victory, checking the Senators on six hits.

The 26-year-old right-hander said he never saw his 390-foot drive sail into the left center field bullpen to open the seventh. "I was afraid to look up," he said, "I just kept running. I didn't know it until the umpire waved me around."

Curt Blefary followed with another bases-empty blast and Boog Powell capped the burst with a two-run homer. All three homers came off reliever Dennis Higgins.

Siebert held the Twins hitless until the seventh, when two walks and Ron Clark's single tied the game 1-1. The Cleveland fireballer, who had delivered one run with a fifth inning single, connected for a broken bat single in the bottom of the seventh and tallied the go-ahead run on singles by Jose Cardenal and pinch hitter Leon Wagner.

Manager Alvin Dark lifted Siebert at the start of the eighth because of the 47 degree weather at Cleveland and Stan Williams completed a two-hitter for the Indians, who had won their three previous games on successive three-hitters by Sam McDowell, Luis Tiant and Steve Hargan.

Peters, who hit two homers last season but never before had connected with the bases filled, slugged off his fourth inning grand slam of Yankee outpaw Al Downing. "Hitting a homer now and then doesn't surprise me," he said, "After all, I take batting practice every day."

The Chicago left-hander struck out nine on the way to his first victory after three setbacks.

Bahnsen stopped the White Sox on two hits—including Pete Ward's sixth homer—until the ninth inning of the nightcap, when he needed relief help from Joe Verbanic after yielding a pair of singles. The Yanks gave Bahnsen a two-run lead in the first inning and Steve Whitaker blooped a two-run double in the seventh.

Davis Cup Team Has Lead of 5-0

RICHMOND, Va. (AP)—"Maybe we're not just paper lions after all," said Donald Dell, U.S. Davis Cup captain, as he made an obvious effort to bridge his enthusiasm. The U.S. team had just completed a 5-0 zone first-round matches.

"A lot of people have said we're a great team on paper," the 30-year-old Marylander said, "but if these fellows want the cup bad enough, we can win it."

The fellows Dell was referring to with unconcealed pride and paternalism were team members Arthur Ashe, Clark Graebner, Bob Lutz and Stan Smith.

Dell's all-out effort to restore international prestige to the image of U.S. amateur tennis got off to an auspicious start. The U.S. squad took command of the British Caribbean Friday with easy singles victories by Ashe and Graebner. The Americans clinched the match with an imposing doubles win by Lutz and Smith Saturday. They cleaned the slate by drubbing their Jamaican foes in the final two singles matches Sunday behind the booming racquets of Ashe, a native Richmonder, and Lutz.

The next stop on the Davis Cup circuit will be in Berkeley, Calif., May 24-26, where the U.S. teams, will play either Mexico or Canada.

Graebner set the pattern in the initial match Friday by storming over the British Caribbean's 22-year-old player captain Richard Russell 6-1, 7-5, 6-0. Ashe, easily the most impressive performer of the match, breezed past the Caribbean's No. 2 player, Lance Lumsden, 6-1, 6-1, 6-0.

Lutz and Smith, fellow undergraduates at the University of Southern California, displayed formidable court savvy in posting their key 6-2, 6-3, 6-3 doubles win Saturday over Russell and Lumsden.

Ashe, the No. 2 ranked U.S. amateur and now an Army lieutenant at West Point, eased and paced his way to an easy 6-3, 6-2, 6-4 victory over Russell in the first of Sunday's largely academic singles events.

But it was Lutz, a chunky, 20-year-old strategist, who proved to be the Sunday surprise as he completely overpowered Lumsden, 6-0, 6-2, 6-1 in his Davis Cup singles debut.

Two-run homer and scored the deciding run on Ramon Webster's fifth inning double after drawing a leadoff walk and stealing his ninth base of the season as the A's shaded the slumping Red Sox, who have dropped six of their last seven starts.

Ken Harrelson's ninth inning homer was one of seven Boston hits off winner Chuck Dobson.

Mickey Stanley hit a two-run homer and Bill Freehan knocked in two runs with a homer and single, helping Detroit right-hander Denny McLain breeze to his fourth victory without a loss. McLain scattered seven hits and struck out seven in going the distance for the fourth time in succession.

Two singles, a walk and a throwing error contributed to the two Dodger runs in the second. Albuquerque got a solo tally in the eighth on a double, infield single and sacrifice fly and got its final run in the ninth on Ken Washington's second homer of the season.

In other Texas League action Sunday Amarillo blasted Shreveport 10-0, Memphis beat El Paso 3-0 and Dallas-Fort Worth defeated San Antonio 10-4.

Giants in Victory Over Cards

By HAL BOCK
Associated Press Sports Writer

Imagine Willie McCovey's surprise when he took a mighty swing, missed the pitch, and suddenly felt his bat making contact with a baseball on his follow through.

And if McCovey was surprised, how do you think St. Louis catcher Tim McCarver felt?

It all happened in the fourth inning of San Francisco's 8-4 victory over St. Louis Sunday and caused a 15-minute argument between Cardinal Manager Red Schoendienst and the umpires.

Willie Mays was on first and McCovey at bat with one out in the fourth. Mays broke for second as McCovey swung at a third strike. McCarver threw the ball and it hit McCovey's bat as the Giant slugger followed through.

Plate Umpire Bill Jackowski at first ruled both McCovey and Mays out but was reversed by the other three umpires, who awarded Mays the stolen base. Schoendienst argued and then announced he was playing the game under protest. Rookie Dave Marshall followed the rharb with his first major league homer, putting the Giants in front to stay.

In other National League games Sunday, Chicago swept a doubleheader from New York 3-2 and 1-0, Cincinnati went 16 innings to edge Los Angeles 3-2, Pittsburgh topped Philadelphia 5-2 and Atlanta shut out Houston 2-0.

In the American League, Baltimore shut out Washington 8-0, Oakland shaded Boston 3-2, Cleveland nipped Minnesota 2-1, Detroit dropped California 5-2 and Chicago split a doubleheader with New York, winning the first game 5-1 and losing the nightcap 4-1.

San Francisco's Mike McCormick survived a shaky start and went the distance for the victory. He also drove in two runs with a single.

Ferguson Jenkins had the Mets shut out on three hits going into the ninth inning of Chicago's opener against New York. But the Cubs needed three relief pitchers to put down a last-gasp Met rally. Lou Johnson doubled and scored on Billy Williams' triple in the third inning and then homered in the eighth for the Cubs.

Jose Arcia, caught in the middle of a line-up mixup, doubled home the only run Bill Hands needed in the nightcap. Hands pitched a four-hitter and struck out 12 including five in the last two innings.

Arcia and Glenn Beckert were both listed at second base in the Cubs' line-up by Manager Leo Durocher, who left Johnson's name off the card by mistake. The umpires ruled that because his name had appeared on Durocher's line-up, Beckert was technically in the game and replaced by Johnson. Both Johnson and Arcia played right from the start.

Johnny Bench's double chased home Lee May with the Reds' winning run in the 16th inning against the Dodgers.

Travelers Lose Twice to Dodgers

LITTLE ROCK (AP)—The Arkansas Travelers will attempt to snap a two-game losing string at the hands of Albuquerque tonight following weekend triumphs of 11-1 and 4-1 by the Dodgers.

Ray Lamb checked the Travelers on six hits Sunday while the Dodgers gave him a two-run cushion in the second inning.

Arkansas' only run came in the eighth on a home run by Mike Christin, his sixth of the year.

Two singles, a walk and a throwing error contributed to the two Dodger runs in the second. Albuquerque got a solo tally in the eighth on a double, infield single and sacrifice fly and got its final run in the ninth on Ken Washington's second homer of the season.

In other Texas League action Sunday Amarillo blasted Shreveport 10-0, Memphis beat El Paso 3-0 and Dallas-Fort Worth defeated San Antonio 10-4.

Dancer May Get Triple Crown

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Dancer's Image was biding his time at Churchill Downs today, with these prospects in store for the Kentucky Derby winner:

A chance to become the first Triple Crown winner since Citation in 1948.

A higher insurance rate. Possible syndication.

"We'll ship him to Baltimore Wednesday to get ready for the Preakness," Trainer Lou Cavalaris said Sunday while accepting congratulations in the Downs stable area for Saturday's come-from-behind victory.

The increased insurance for Dancer's Image, who at one time was insured for $150,000 but who went into the Derby insured for $1.5 million, was disclosed by owner Peter Fuller.

"We're increasing the insurance on Dancer's Image to $1.8 million, and that's the highest ever for a horse that's still running," the Boston sportsman said.

As for syndication, Fuller, who recently was offered $2 million for his Native Dancer colt, said there have been no specific plans "but there are about 10 people—five of them prime prospects—who have expressed some interests."

It was a victory in the first Derby try for Fuller and Cavalaris, and both were elated.

For a time Saturday, it looked very much like Dancer's Image would be out of the money. He was last in the 14-horse field after one-half mile and was eighth with a quarter of a mile to go.

Then Bobby Ussery shot the gray colt through a hole along the rail, and Dancer's Image carried the veteran rider into the winner's circle for the second straight year. Ussery, who won in 1967 with Proud Clarion, is only the third rider to win two consecutive derbies.

So intent was Ussery in getting home first, he didn't realize he dropped his whip three-sixteenths of a mile from the finish and was slapping Dancer's Image with his hand in the drive for the wire.

Barber and Sikes in the Money

HOUSTON (AP)—Miller Barber of Texarkana shot a closing round of 75 Sunday and finished fourth in the Houston Champions International Golf Tournament. Barber won $4,050 with his 279 total.

R. H. Sikes of Springdale, Ark., had a 71 Sunday for a 283 total, good enough for 14th place and $1,750.

Strange Drama Unfolds in Tennis Meet

LONDON (AP)—A strange drama unfolded in the European Zone Davis Cup tennis tournament as Sweden and Rhodesia stood even at 1-1 in what has been a best-of-5 series of mysterious matches.

Sweden's Ove Bengtsson reportedly ran through Adrian Bey 6-3, 6-2, 6-4 before Rhodesia's Frank Salomon outlasted Hans Norwell 2-6, 6-4, 7-5, 1-6, 7-5, Sunday, but where the matches took place is a big secret. The best bet is somewhere in France, possibly the resort town of Bandol.

The matches were moved from Bastad, Sweden, where anti-Rhodesian demonstrations left the courts soaked with oil and littered with eggs, iron bars and stones. Some 1,000 demonstrators were protesting Rhodesia's white minority government.

The results were announced in Nice, France, after a mysterious telephone call by persons who identified themselves as Davis Cup organizers, but they declined to give the site or go into details of the matches.

The rest of the Zone matches were completed more routinely, although Czechoslovakia upset Brazil 3-2 at Prague.

Bulgaria, South Africa, Russia, Belgium, Iran, West Germany, Poland and Yugoslavia won other first round matches

Argentine Pro Wins at Houston

By PAUL REGER
HOUSTON (AP)—Roberto De

Vicenzo, the veteran Argentine golf pro who lost a tie for the Masters crown by signing an incorrect card, didn't take any chances Sunday at the $100,000 Houston Champions International.

As he looked over his card at the 18th green, De Vicenzo was the apparent winner by one stroke. He added the card and then glanced around. "Before I sign," he said, "I want my lawyer."

The 46-year-old pro was kidding, but he was careful. He had an official add up the score and then he signed it with a flourish.

The $20,000 win was the 141st tournament victory for De Vicenzo, who plays all over the world, and the third time he had won a tournament in Texas.

He won here with four rounds of consistent golf and with a little psychology.

On the final hole Sunday, De Vicenzo and Lee Trevino, 28-year-old Horizon City, Tex., pro, looking for his first tournament win, were tied at 10 under par. They each needed to sink four-foot putts to finish. It was De Vicenzo's option and he chose to putt first. The ball dropped, throwing the pressure on Trevino. The Texan missed and De Vicenzo was the winner.

De Vicenzo finished with a three-under-par 68 for a 287 and Trevino was one stroke back after shooting even-par 71 the final round. Dan Sikes was third with a 73 final round and a 276 total. Jack Nicklaus was fourth at 278 and Tommy Aaron and Miller Barber shared fifth at 279.

Running Away from Home Is Impulse to Explore

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Children run away from home for different reasons. The preschool child who goes absent without leave is usually not running away but rather acting on an impulse to explore a little larger part of his surroundings than he has been accustomed to do. He often finds his way back home by himself and, when he doesn't, he is genuinely surprised at all the fuss over his escapade.

When an older child runs away the problem is not so simple. He often feels a crushing sense of helplessness in the face of parental restrictions no matter how reasonable and just they may be. He is rebelling against his own inability to control his environment and he is too immature to realize that running away will in no way help the situation.

A study was made of 42 runaways and 42 other children, referred to a child guidance clinic, who had not run away. The runaways were more likely than the others to complain of being picked on, falsely accused of misbehavior and ridiculed or humiliated by their parents.

This study points up the

Jim: "Sometimes an expert will find a way to lose a contract that a player of lesser ability would never conceive."

Oswald: "Here's one of this type that Fred Karpin shows.
East was the late Ewart Kempson of England and South was one of the greatest players of all time. I won't mention his name because we don't want to malign his memory."

Jim: "South must have ducked that first heart. In that case I can't see how South managed to get himself set."

Oswald: "It was due to a brilliant but silly play. South ducked the first heart whereupon East shifted to the six of diamonds. West took his ace and led the diamond queen. South was in dummy with the king. Now do you see what he did?"

Jim: "I think so. He must have discarded his 10 of hearts on one of dummy's clubs and then led the nine of spades and finessed against East. That play would have worked if East held all five trumps, but it had to be downright silly because it allowed West to give his partner a diamond ruff for the setting trick."

Oswald: "South had reasoned that East's failure to lead a trump at trick two indicated that he held all five missing trumps and wanted to get a quick diamond trick.
It was expert reasoning at its worst."

Jim: "Not necessarily. Had South carried his expert reasoning a trifle further he could have guarded against five trumps in the East hand and still made his contract."

Oswald: "Of course. He could have cashed two more high clubs and got rid of his last two diamonds. It wouldn't bother him if East trumped in because South could overruff and hold his trump loss to one against any and all distributions."

Millwood Development on Agenda

Representative Talbot Feild, Jr., announced today that the Publicity and Parks Commission has notified him that it has placed on its agenda for its May 17th meeting consideration of Developments at Millwood Lake.

Mr. Feild made this statement: "As one of the many citizens who fought for this fine lake, I feel that Hempstead County is entitled to a state park and other facilities at Millwood Lake. On the Hempstead County side at Beards Bluff is a beautiful site with paved access roads, ideal for a state park, with camping ground, boating and lodging facilities, food and an area for young people, especially suitable for Boy and Girl Scouts, which could exceed any other park and facilities on a lake in the four state area."

"We are all aware of the critical need for a marina at Lake Millwood so that citizens of this county might have a place to leave their boats and have boat services. A lodge with a restaurant overlooking the lake and a sand beach for swimming are also essential. These facilities will be a wonderful asset to Hempstead County, Southwest Arkansas and the four state area and will provide facilities for all ages of our people."

The following letter was received by Mr. Feild from Mr. Bryan Stearns, associate director of parks, Arkansas Publicity and Parks Commission:

Hon. Talbot Feild, Jr.,
111 South Walnut Street
Hope, Arkansas 71801

Dear Representative Feild: In further reference to our consultation concerning location and development of a state park in Hempstead County, on the east side of Millwood Lake, it is my suggestion that you and a representative group of interested citizens appear before the Publicity and Parks Commission in the Capitol Building at 1:00 p.m. on May 17, 1968. It would be well to present the urgent need for this new park and the development of a restaurant, motel and marina, with facilities for a Boy Scout and Girl Scout camp. Sincerely yours,

Arkansas Publicity and Parks Commission
Bryan Stearns
Associate Director Parks

May 2, 1968

Mr. Charles W. Wilson made the following statement to the Hope Star today: "As President of the newly formed Millwood Lake Improvement Association, I urge all interested citizens to contact me, County Judge Finley."

You Don't Say Goodbye to Glasses With First Pair Contact Lenses

By JOY STILLLEY
NEW YORK (AP) — When I outfitted my eyes with a brand-new pair of contact lenses, I thought I had said goodbye forever to glasses.

But this was not to be the case. Instead of the one pair I formerly owned, I now have four sets of spectacles. And all of them have gotta go where I go, forcing me to acquire increasingly large purses to harbor my vast array of eyewear.

First, there's my good old time-tested regular prescription glasses, which served me gallantly if not glamorously when my 20-20 vision came in a large, instead of a small, package.

Next, I found that my store-bought eyes were sensitive to light so I added sunglasses that serve as windshields too, since a tiny speck of dust flying into a lens-encased orb feels as big as a boulder.

Occupying third place on my roster of orbital armament is a pair of prescription sunglasses, for use in the bright outside world when I am not sporting my contact lenses.

After I had been wearing my contacts for some time I noted with alarm that long periods of reading brought on eyestrain. I took my problem to my optometrist, who came up with the solution—a new pair of glasses. These glass specs go over the

Heart Attack Claims Dr. L. T. Lawrence

Dr. L. T. Lawrence, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Hope, suffered a heart attack and died suddenly Sunday afternoon at his home on South Main Street. He would have been 71 years old on this coming Saturday, and had planned to retire from the active ministry on that date.

Dr. Lawrence had preached his farewell sermon at the 11:00 o'clock hour to a packed congregation, and had spent the afternoon visiting with his family and friends who were home for the occasion. As one member of the church put it "he simply went to sleep while sitting in a chair about six o'clock p.m. after a full day."

The Lawrences moved to Hope from Osceola in February 1951. He led the local congregation in an extensive building program consisting of a new manse, chapel and church building on South Main Street. The new structures were completed in January 1954 and the Presbyterians moved from their former location on Second Street to the new plant. The former church buildings at 300 East Second Street were purchased by Oakcrest Mortuary, and are now the site of the Oakcrest Funeral Home.

Dr. Lawrence is survived by his wife, Mrs. Linell Linell Lawrence, four sons, Carey of Los Angeles, Paul of the U.S. Air Force, Bill of Austin, Texas, and Larry of the Air Force; one daughter, Miss Beth Lawrence a student in East Texas University for Women at Denton, Texas; one sister, and two brothers.

Funeral arrangements are incomplete at this time pending the arrival of the members of the family, but will be announced later by Oakcrest Funeral Service of Hope.

The family of Dr. L. T. Lawrence requests that in lieu of flowers donations be made to the First Presbyterian Church or other worth while causes.

Food Stamp Plan for Hempstead

A new tentative beginning date of August 2nd for a federal food stamp program in Hempstead County was announced today by State Welfare Commissioner Len Blaylock. A shortage of federal funds delayed the Welfare Department in starting the food stamp program in 8 counties earlier this year.

A total of 17 counties will be added to the food stamp program during July and August. Already, the program is in operation in 38 Arkansas counties, with more than 85,000 needy persons participating.

As an example of participation: a family of five—with a monthly income of no more than one hundred dollars—may purchase $40.00 worth of food stamps and receive $36.00 worth of stamps free of charge.

When the food stamp program begins, the Welfare Department will stop distribution of commodities in Hempstead County. About 650 needy persons in Hempstead County now receive monthly allocations of commodities. Commodity recipients, along with other low income families, are eligible to take part in the food stamp program.

Miss Universe Contestant

WEST MEMPHIS, Ark. (AP) — Ann Smithwick, a sophomore at Arkansas State University, was named Miss Arkansas Universe Saturday night and will represent Arkansas in the Miss Universe Pageant at Miami Beach later this month.

The 19-year-old blue-eyed brunette is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jim C. Smithwick of Jacksonville. She is 5-feet-6 and measures 34-24-37.

Group Plans New Look at Tax Issue

WASHINGTON (AP) — Produced anew by President Johnson, the House Ways and Means Committee—which has sat on his income tax hike proposal since last August—takes another look at the measure.

On the eve of the tax-writing committee's closed meeting today, Johnson warned Congress that further delay in passing his proposed 10 per cent income tax surcharge "is a ticket to disaster."

The warning came in letters Sunday to House Speaker John W. McCormack, Chairman Wilber D. Mills, D-Ark., of the Ways and Means Committee and other House leaders.

Johnson also put in writing his willingness to accept a $4 billion cut in federal spending.

But he stated further his $186 billion budget is a tight one and made clear he wasn't suggesting cuts but rather acceding to those he views as necessary to get congressional backing for the tax boost.

It remained unlikely, however, that Congress—if it's willing to accept any tax increase—would settle for $4 billion in spending cuts.

The Senate already has passed the tax boost bill tied to a $6 billion spending slash.

And Mills has indicated it would be futile to ask House members, facing re-election this year, to approve cuts lower than the Senate's.

Many Capitol Hill observers viewed Johnson's verbal assault Friday on Congress for refusing to approve the tax hike as an indication he thinks its chances have all but vanished and wanted to place blame on the Republicans.

In the nationally televised and broadcast news conference, Johnson charged Congress with trying to blackmail the administration into massive spending cuts—cuts he said the nation can't afford.

In Sunday's letters, Johnson said:

"The time is fast running out on one of the most crucial legislative measures of the decade—the tax surcharge. Further delay is a ticket to disaster."

He called increasing taxes "an American imperative," essential to help ward off inflation, finance the Vietnam war and protect the dollar abroad.

Ike Is Back Playing Golf

MARCH AIR FORCE BASE, Calif. (AP) — A week after suffering a mild heart attack after playing golf near his winter home at Palm Desert, Calif., former President Dwight D. Eisenhower continues to progress satisfactorily, hospital spokesmen say.

A medical bulletin issued Sunday by the base hospital said the 77-year-old Eisenhower "spent another good 24 hours."

Oakes to Handle Crank Drive

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — Rep. Jack S. Oakes of Augusta has been named campaign manager for Rep. Marion Crank of Foreman, who is a candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination.

Oakes, who had been considered by many observers as a supporter for Frank Whitbeck of Little Rock, another candidate for the party nomination, said he was still a friend of Whitbeck's, but that he had never been in his political corner.

McCarthy, JFK Near Showdown

WASHINGTON (AP) — Indiana's showdown between Sens. Robert F. Kennedy and Eugene J. McCarthy heads a week of major political activity including five primary elections and seven state conventions.

The week is expected to test Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's drive for Democratic National Convention delegates for the presidential nomination as well as Kennedy and McCarthy voter strength.

The political activity also will indicate Republican candidate Richard M. Nixon's appeal to voters and delegates after New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's entry into the GOP race.

The primaries Tuesday in Indiana, Alabama, Florida, Ohio and the District of Columbia. There will be Democratic state conventions in Hawaii, Wyoming and Delaware, and Republican conventions in Alaska, Wyoming, Maine and Hawaii.

In Indiana, Kennedy supporters fired back Sunday at charges he's trying to buy victory. And McCarthy said neither Kennedy nor Humphrey offers the hope of a revitalized America that he does.

The reply to charges Kennedy is spending up to $2 million in Indiana came from campaign adviser Pierre Salinger in the form of a demand for investigation of alleged bias by the Indianapolis Star and News.

A Sunday Star editorial urged Republicans to cross over and vote for Gov. Roger D. Branigan.

Driver Dies in Wreck at Saratoga

Late Saturday night a truck driven by Kenneth Hensch, 21, of Ashdown, went out of control on a curve and overturned near Saratoga killing the driver.

State Policeman Wallace Martin said Hensch, driving alone, was pinned in the crushed cab for some time.

North on Highway 29 late Sunday a small sports car driven by Wayne Whitley went out of control and hit a bridge culvert injuring three persons, besides Whitley, Harold Patton and Lee West were painfully hurt. All three were taken to a local hospital for treatment.

State Policeman Wallace Martin investigated.

Believes N. Vietnam Misgauges Power and Determination of U.S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — U.N. Ambassador-designate George Ball says North Vietnam misgauges U.S. determination and power if it expects the latest wave of enemy attacks in South Vietnam to improve its peace talks bargaining position.

A North Vietnamese administration source, who could not be identified, meanwhile called the widespread enemy assaults "very discouraging to the administration" so soon before direct talks between North Vietnamese and U.S. representatives are slated to get under way in Paris.

And from the French capital came word that representatives of the two nations are expected to decide soon—maybe even today—on the place in or near the French capital for holding preliminary talks, to begin Friday or soon after.

Ball said Sunday that in his March 31 order limiting bombing of North Vietnam, President Johnson hoped for "some kind of reciprocity" but "up to now there's been no evidence of that."

In fact, Ball added, the attacks on 100 or more communities in South Vietnam suggest a pattern similar to 1954, when Ho

Telephone Workers Vote to Return

WASHINGTON (AP) — Striking telephone workers have put "the voice with a smile" back in style with a nationwide contract ratification vote that officially ended an 18-day walkout against the Bell Telephone System.

But scattered locals announced they wouldn't heed the back-to-work order issued by the Communications Workers of America after its Washington headquarters announced Sunday the 54,680-30,721 vote to ratify the three-year contract.

The union has said the contract offered a boost of nearly 20 per cent in wages and fringe benefits over its three-year life.

President Ben S. Gilmer, president of American Telephone and Telegraph Co., parent company to Bell, said costs of the contract—estimated at about $2 billion by the union—"will inevitably have some effect on the rates our customers

The vast majority of the 200,000 workers involved in the strike were expected to begin returning to work today under what CWA officials called the best contract ever achieved in the industry.

And CWA spokesmen said any refusal to end picketing as of midnight would be in defiance of the union executive board, which it said alone "has the right to call a strike and the right to end a strike."

Fighting in Vietnam Intensified

By GEORGE ESPEY
Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — The enemy attack on Saigon swept on in full fury tonight, with North Vietnamese reported fighting for the first time in the capital and a heavy explosion—believed a rocket—blasting the heart of the city.

The North Vietnamese were battling South Vietnamese troops from a cemetery near Saigon's Tan Son Nhut airport.

The missile was believed to have exploded near the downtown Saigon U.S. and International House, a private club frequented by Americans. Both were closed by Saigon's curfew; but the area is one of many apartments and hotels occupied by Vietnamese and Americans.

There was no sign, however, that any buildings were burning. Police vehicles, fire engines and ambulances converged quickly on the scene.

U.S. military spokesmen indicated the new enemy offensive, launched Sunday, was subsiding elsewhere across South Vietnam after only one day.

Blasts Fans for Loss of the Pennant

By BILL HALLS
Associated Press Sports Writer
DETROIT (AP) — Right-hander Denny McLain blasted Detroit Tigers' fans Sunday as "the biggest front-running fans in the world," and said they helped lose the pennant in 1967.
The 24-year-old Tiger pitcher cut loose in an interview after beating the California Angels 5-2 for his fourth straight complete game victory this year.
"Norm Cash and I were going bad last year and they got on us real bad," said McLain. "How do they think a guy's wife feels after he goes 0-for-8 or 0-for-16 and the fans out loose while she's in the stands?"
"If they think we're stupid for playing this game, how stupid are they for watching us?"
Asked if he thought the fans' attitude had an effect on the Tigers losing the pennant by one game last year, McLain said: "I think it did. There were certain guys on this club who didn't want to go out and play last year because of fan abuse."
McLain, who posted a 17-16 record last year but didn't win a game in the September stretch drive because of a freak foot injury, singled out All-Star outfielder Al Kaline as an example of fan abuse. Kaline, off to a slow start, is batting .241 with just two runs batted in in 22 games.
"Now the fans are on Kaline," said McLain. "He's produced for 15 years and he'll produce again this year. They don't realize how good a ballplayer he is."

"I don't care if I get booed here the rest of my life," added McLain. "Detroit is a great town, I like it, I've bought a home here and have roots. But the fans in this town are the worst in the league."

Big Surprise Was Crowd at Playoff

By LEW FERGUSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Professional basketball's battle for rookie talent, which flared in the scrap for Houston's Elvin Hayes and Louisville's Westley Unseld, starts warming up again this week.
The American Basketball Association completed its college player draft here Sunday, and announced that nine players had been signed and a half dozen more are soon to be announced as signed.
But the new Milwaukee franchise in the NBA signed Charles Paulk of Northeastern Oklahoma Sunday night to signal a new outbreak of the war. Paulk was the first-round pick of New Orleans of the ABA.
The National Basketball Association is scheduled to finish its college draft Wednesday in New York City. After it does, the higher choices can start comparing offers—and playing one bonus against the other just as football players did a few years ago.
The NBA held its expansion draft today in New York to stock its new franchises in Milwaukee and Phoenix.
The Los Angeles Stars, formerly the Anaheim A mig o s, have signed No. 1 choice Larry Miller, 6-foot-4 North Carolina star, and No. 2 pick Mervin Jackson, 6-3 of Utah. Los Angeles also has rights to three UCLA stars, Mike Warren, Edgar Lacey and Mike Lynn.

Blues Still One Down on Canadiens

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Scotty Bowman figures his St. Louis Blues are one up on the Boston Bruins, even if the Blues are one down to the Montreal Canadiens in the National Hockey League Stanley Cup finals.
"At least we took them (the Canadiens) into overtime," Coach Bowman pointed out Sunday after the Canadiens nipped the Blues 3-2 in sudden death. The second game of the best-of-7 series will be played Tuesday in St. Louis.
"Boston just lost four straight," Bowman added. "And what the heck, a lot of teams have lost the first game to the Canadiens in the playoffs."

The Blues lost their first game in the playoffs to the Canadiens with 1:41 gone in the overtime. Center Jacques Lemaire picked up the puck in center ice and fired a 40-foot slap shot that St. Louis goalie Glenn Hall couldn't handle.

Detention Centers Suggested

WASHINGTON (AP) — Use of "detention centers" as a counter-move to any widespread guerrilla warfare by a Communist-Black nationalist coalition has been suggested in a House committee's report.

Chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., in a forward to the 65-page report issued by his House Committee on Un-American Activities, said:

"There can be no question about the fact that there are mixed Communist and Black nationalist elements in this country which are planning and organizing guerrilla-type organizations against the United States."

In a section dealing with actions that could be taken against a systematic, guerrilla-style attempt to overthrow the government by rioting in the slums, the report states:

"Acts of overt violence by the guerrillas would mean that they had declared a 'state of war' within the country and, therefore, would forfeit their rights as in wartime."

"The McCarran Act provides for various detention centers to be operated throughout the country and these might well be utilized for the temporary imprisonment of warring guerrillas."

Also suggested as a counter-move was issuance of "census cards" that would bear a photograph of each slum-dweller and information about their home city and their street address.

"This classification would aid the authorities in knowing the exact location of any suspect and who is in control of any given district," said the report.

"Under such a system, movement would be proscribed and the ability of the guerrilla to move freely from place to place seriously curtailed."

Willis said most of the report was prepared by Phillip Abbott Luce, described as a one-time activist in the pro-Red Chinese Progressive Labor party prior to his defection from communism in 1965.

The report purported to document calls for urban guerrilla warfare by groups such as the Revolutionary Action Movement (RAM) and its leader, Peking-based Robert Williams; the Revolutionary Contingent, which it called "an openly Communist organization" based in New York and "key leaders of the Students for a Democratic Society," such as former SDS chairman Thomas Hayden.

Successful Transplant in Florida

By ROBERT A. DOBKIN
Associated Press Writer

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — The first known successful human transplant of the thymus, a small, mysterious gland-like organ that helps in building the body's resistance to disease, was reported today by a Florida physician.

The thymus was implanted into the body of a 7-month-old boy, born without the organ and given little chance for survival.

"At 18 months of age, the infant is growing normally and has no unusual infections," said Dr. William W. Cleveland, an endocrinologist and professor of pediatrics at the University of Miami, Fla., School of Medicine.

Cleveland said in an interview that the success of the operation lends strong support to the immunologic functions of the thymus that so far have been based on animal studies.

He reported in a paper prepared for the annual meeting of the American Society for Clinical Investigation that the infant showed poor immunologic reaction before the operation. Almost immediately afterward his immunologic responses improved, the doctor said.

The thymus, found in the up-

Two Heart Transplants Still Working

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Surgeons in Houston, Tex., have performed their second heart transplant operation in less than three days, with both patients reported making progress. Joseph Rizzor, the eighth heart transplant patient, died at Stanford, Calif., Sunday.

At London's National Heart Hospital, 45-year-old Frederick West, his heart replaced Friday night with that of a young laborer killed in a fall, Sunday had a supper of pureed carrots and prunes—his first solid food since his operation. He also asked for books and a television set.

At Houston, the St. Luke's Hospital surgical team Sunday night performed the world's 11th human heart transplant, replacing the ailing heart of James B. Cobb, 48, with that of a youth killed in a motorcycle accident. Cobb was in "excellent condition," a hospital spokesman said.

The same Houston surgical team Friday gave Everett Claire Thomas, 47, the heart of a 15-year-old bride. Thomas' condition on Sunday was termed satisfactory.

At the Stanford Medical Center, the 40-year-old Rizzor died 6½ hours after his transplanted heart stopped beating for a time Sunday afternoon.

Doctors got it working again in a few minutes but said the stoppage had been caused by a lack of oxygen in the blood. Death was caused, they said, by the inability of Rizzor's lungs—long damaged by his own heart impairment—to supply sufficient oxygen to his new heart. Rizzor, father of four, was a carpenter in Salinas, Calif. His heart came from an athletic 43-year-old man who died of a massive brain hemorrhage.

Cobb, a salesman from Alexandria, La., is the father of two children.

The operation, performed May 24, 1967, involved pediatric physicians at the University of Miami medical school and a London pathologist.

15 Special Items on the Agenda

LITTLE ROCK (AP) — The General Assembly should "easily" complete its business in a week on about 15 items it will consider in the special legislative session to convene two weeks from today, two of Gov. Winthrop Rockefeller's closest aides predict.

"They ought to be able to easily do it in a week," said Marion Burton, the governor's executive secretary.

"Fifteen items should be a realistic figure," said T. Thomas Eisele, the governor's legal adviser.

But the shadow of longevity over the session is cast by the fact that the session is coming on the eve of an election campaign in which 18 incumbents face contests with Democratic primary and/or general election opponents.

Fiscal doubts of the state's continued solvency could also hold the legislators in deadlock on some revenue measures.

Rockefeller has already said he will include in the call the documentary stamp tax on the transfer of real estate which would produce an estimated $500,000 a year. The measure was defeated in the 13-day special session in February.

Burton said passage of the stamp tax bill is almost essential because it not only produces needed revenues, but also places controls on assessment in the state.

Burton said the possibility of having a "mixed drink bill is remote," but that if recent regulations promulgated by the Alcoholic Beverage Control Board are declared valid, some revenue measure on alcoholic beverages may be included.

Other possible legislation included: — A uniform unclaimed property bill that would provide $1 million annually.

— A War Memorial Stadium bond refunding proposal to provide money for improvements to the facility at Little Rock.

— A bill giving the governor authority to draw money to pay the National Guard when it is activated during civil emergencies.

8th Heart Transplant Patient Dies

STANFORD, Calif. (AP) — Joseph Rizzor, the world's eighth human heart transplant patient, died Sunday night when, doctors said, his damaged lungs failed to supply enough oxygen to keep his new heart beating.

Doctors at Stanford University Medical Center said Rizzor, a 40-year-old carpenter from Salinas, Calif., died because his bloodstream had only 10 per cent of its normal supply of oxygen.

The transplanted heart had quit suddenly 6½ hours earlier, but doctors restored its beat within a few minutes.

They explained that his lungs had adjusted through the years to his own enlarged heart, which pumped blood at high pressure but very slowly, requiring two minutes for complete circulation.

When he received the heart last Thursday of an athletic man who had suffered a massive brain hemorrhage, the new heart circulated his blood in 20 seconds, too fast for his damaged lungs to add the normal supply of life-giving oxygen, according to Dr. Norman E. Shumway, the surgeon who led the transplant team.

Only 24 hours after the operation, Shumway said: "For the next few days we can say that his condition will be critical until we can see some change in the level of oxygen tension in his arterial blood."

Until Sunday afternoon, Rizzor's condition has been listed as fair, although each medical bulletin had made it clear his lung condition continued to be a matter of major concern.

On Sunday morning, Rizzor had been visited by his wife, Eileen, and their four children, aged 3 to 15.

Rizzor even had joked with his doctors. They said they had been able to reduce his respiratory oxygen level from 100 per cent to 80 per cent, and took him briefly out of the respirator.

His diet, which had been intravenous, was stepped up to fruit juices and soups taken orally.

Chrysler Newport now priced about $2.29 a month more than a Chevy Caprice* (which is still a Chevy, a high-price, low-price car). Chrysler Newport now priced about $3.78 a month more than a Ford LTD* (which is still a Ford, a high-price, low-price car). That little more now moves you up into a big, full-size, almost shamefully elegant Chrysler—and that's an unbeatable deal. Afford a Chrysler? The way we're dealing, can you afford to pass it up?

Hayden of Arizona May Retire
By PEGGY SIMPSON
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Carl Hayden, 90-year-old Arizona Democrat who has served in Congress longer than any other person, plans to meet the press today—and many friends expect he'll announce his retirement.
Hayden's news conference is by his accounts ahead of schedule. His average is one every 10 years and he held one in 1962.
Friends and longtime congressional colleagues are also invited to the event this afternoon in the Senate office building room where Hayden presides over Appropriations Committee meetings.
Although he walks with a shuffle, Hayden's voice still is firm and he is rated one of the Senate's very influential men as Appropriations Committee chairman.
The onetime Stanford University football player and Arizona sheriff came to Congress in 1912 as Arizona's first representative. His 56 years' over-all service and his 42 years in the Senate each are records.
If Hayden chooses to retire, he is expected to endorse as his successor his 37-year-old administrative aide, Roy Elson, who has been with the senator since 1962.
The sole candidate in the race to date is Barry Goldwater, the former senator from Arizona who quit to become the Republican party's unsuccessful nominee for president in 1964.
In a recent interview, Elson said Hayden "has stood for progress and moving forward. He has been able to move with the times. I never heard him say 'We used to do it this way.' He has always been very pragmatic and worked to find ways to get things done."
Elson said the senator "made Arizona blossom from the desert into what it is today. That whole state is a witness to Carl Hayden and his influence."
Hayden was born in Tempe, Ariz., in 1877.
The only office he ever sought and lost was that of student body president of Stanford University in the 1890s. He operated a flour milling business in Tempe after his graduation and served as treasurer, then sheriff of Maricopa County (Phoenix) before winning the seat in Congress.

United Party Could Cost Republicans

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark. (AP) — Democratic candidates expressed confidence Saturday night that a unified Democratic party could oust the Republican administration in the November general election.
On hand for the rally were five gubernatorial candidates, one candidate for the U.S. Senate, one for Congress and many aspirants for state offices.
Gubernatorial candidate Marion Crank appealed to the Democrats to close ranks after the primaries and support the party nominees.
Former Atty. Gen. Bruce Bennett, also seeking the governorship, said the state must be made Democratic again for the next 100 years.
"Have you seen the present administration say anything good about the state?" Bennett asked.
Ted Boswell, also a gubernatorial candidate, called for Democrats "to face the challenge of the new generation"—a generation he said that knew no age limit but believed in progress and the future.
Mrs. Hale Boggs, wife of the Louisiana representative who is majority whip in the U.S. House, said, "I think it is time for demonstrations to be over and time for positive action."
Clyde Byrd, also among the six Democrats seeking the gubernatorial nomination, said the rally was among the best meetings of Democrats he had seen in many years.
"If we can have more of them throughout the state, there will be no question about the outcome in November," Byrd said.

Evidence Reds Will Keep Fighting

SAIGON (AP) — The Viet Cong's coordinated attacks throughout South Vietnam Sunday provide more evidence of the Communists' plan to keep fighting while they talk peace.
Such a tactic is a dogma evolved by Communist guerrilla fighters over the past few decades. It is one of Chinese Communist boss Mao Tse-tung's principal tenets: Fight, fight, fight; talk, talk, talk; fight, fight, fight.
The North Vietnamese version of the tactic was clear in directives issued to Communist troops in the South on April 3, the day after Hanoi accepted President Johnson's offer to talk peace.
A captured enemy document, dated April 4, informs political cadre that "troops should be indoctrinated to realize fully that in the fight against our barbarous, stubborn and deceitful enemy, we must closely coordinate our military and political struggles with diplomatic offensives."
"There will come the time when we have to accept diplomatic contacts with the U.S. imperialists but such action is not inconsistent with our basic policy on the resistance of Americans for national salvation."
The enemy soldiers were told that the U.S. offer to limit bombing of the North in an attempt to get preliminary talks started is a "deceitful scheme."
"The new scheme of the U.S. aggressors should be fully understood among the entire party, army and people," the directive said.
"We must attack the enemy continually and aggressively so as to drive him to the worst possible position."
"We cannot afford to entertain an illusion of peace negotiations and relax our weapons. We must take advantage of the enemy's confusion and doubt to surge forward with determination and, through decisive attacks, destroy a large part of the U.S. and puppet (South Vietnamese government) troops, disintegrate the puppet army and government, liberate the rural areas completely and launch armed uprisings in towns and cities in order to defeat the U.S. aggressive will and restore power to the people."
The allies have shown that they can stop any Viet Cong or North Vietnamese thrust, but they have not found a way to prevent nationwide intimidation by the Communists.
The attacks, as flimsy as some might be, are enough to prove to many Vietnamese that no place is really safe from the Viet Cong.

Arkansan Dies in Air Crash

Survivor Tells About Cong Attack

By FRANK PALMOS
Written for The Associated Press
SAIGON (AP) — We had headed toward the Mekong Delta but there was nothing doing down there, so we decided to head back toward Saigon.
John Cantwell, an Australian and a Time magazine staffer, was driving. Michael Birch of the Australian Associated Press was in the right front seat of the small, open jeep-type vehicle. On the right in back was Ron Laramy, a British national who worked for Reuters; in the center was another Reuters man, Bruce Pigott, an Australian. I was the last to get in and had to take the half seat in the back with my left leg hanging out over the side.
We saw two gunship helicopters attacking about 1,000 yards to the north. We headed into a very crowded and poor district on a muddy street about 12 feet wide. Moving the other way was a strong current of refugees shouting "Viet Cong! Viet Cong! Viet Cong!"
I was sitting on the mudguard on the left. So I had a higher view and I said, perhaps from intuition, "The VC are up ahead — stop! stop! stop!"
Bruce said, "Oh, go ahead anyway," but immediately after his face went pale. Apparently he had seen something that I hadn't seen.
We drove into an open intersection. It was empty.
I shouted, "Stop! Stop!" because I was scared and I felt that there were VC there.
Cantwell swerved to the left and while he was trying to get into reverse, two Viet Cong opened fire. One on our left had a burp gun, the one on the right an AK47. There were two other VC there in the background and the fifth, the commander as I learned later, was nearby.
It wasn't a real ambush. They
